Supervisory District 1 Candidate Nora Vargas Announces Endorsement from the San Diego County Democratic Party

SAN DIEGO, CA – Southwestern College Governing Board President and candidate for San Diego County Board of Supervisors District 1 Nora Vargas, announced today that her campaign received the endorsement of the San Diego County Democratic Party with more than 63% of the vote on Tuesday night's meeting of the Party's Central Committee. Her opponent, State Senator Ben Hueso trailed behind with only 4% of the vote.

"I am humbled and honored to have earned the vote and trust from the members of the San Diego County Democratic Party," said Ms. Vargas. "I am committed to bringing real change to District 1 and to move our region forward. As Supervisor, I will take the bold steps necessary to create access, opportunity and equity for all communities to ensure everyone in our district and county has the chance to prosper. With the community as my partner, we will build a stronger and healthier region."

In their endorsement of Vargas, San Diego County Democratic Party Chair Will Rodriguez-Kennedy said, "Nora Vargas has proven herself to be a fierce advocate for working families. She is the champion we need on the County Board of Supervisors to help bring economic opportunity and access to resources for our region and ensure that our communities are healthy and thriving."

The San Diego County Democratic Party endorsement comes on the heels of other major endorsements this week from Emily's List, Latino Victory Fund, Congresswoman Susan Davis, Martin Luther King, Jr. Democratic Club, among others.
